The Southern African Missiological Society (Suider-Afrikaanse Werkgemeenskap vir Sendingwetenskap) was founded in 1968. At present it has some 310 members, drawn mainly from Reformed, Lutheran, Anglican, Roman Catholic, Congregational, Methodist, Presbyterian and Baptist Churches. Its aim is to further the study of mission, and to contribute to discussion in this field both in Southern Africa and the rest of the world. It is affiliated to the International Association for Mission Studies (c/o Dr Joachim Wietzke General Secretary, I.A.M.S., Mittelweg 143, Hamburg, West Germany).
